

The Institute of World Culture Presents a seminar on

Interpreting Baroque Art

Saturday, February 11, 2006, 2:00–4:30 pm
Concord House, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara
Presenter: Joyce Johnson

This seminar will explore the social, religious and historical significance of this extraordinary art with visual examples from the most gifted architects, painters and sculptors of the era. Illustrations of the theatrical qualities of Baroque art will be contrasted with Classical and Renaissance styles and themes.
