Annual Meeting & Brainstorming for 2007

It's time to open the annual floodgates of creativity! Let's drench ourselves in ideas for the Institute of World Culture's 2007 program. The Institute's amazingly diverse and profound offerings are solely dependent on the efforts of our membership. Dedicated to life-long learning, our members either deliver our program's presentations themselves, based on their own study and experience, or they make the arrangements for other remarkable human beings to present to the Institute their life work, their field of expertise, their music, their scientific or artistic endeavors or other cultural contributions. Our members also make possible the Institute's film series and excursions to other events of cultural interest.

For 2007, we are counting on you, our members, once again! Join us for our brainstorming session at the annual membership meeting:

Saturday, September 30, 7:30 – 9:00 pm

Please BRING WITH YOU – or – SEND IN ADVANCE the suggestion form below. You can also fill in the suggestion form online @ worldculture.org.

To stimulate the juices of ideation, please consider our theme for 2007, which is Institute Aim 6: “To promote forums for fearless inquiry and constructive dialogue concerning the frontiers of science, the therapeutics of self-transformation, and the societies of the future.”

Suggestion Form for 2007

What seminar topics or speakers would you recommend for 2007? (Please note those that you would be willing to present yourself)

Could you suggest any thought-provoking, culturally rich films to stimulate group dialogue?

What topics or books would you like the Institute to pursue in a forum or discussion group?

Are there any cultural events, productions or exhibits that you would suggest that we attend in 2007?

What is your particular area of study, interest or expertise that you might be willing to share at the Institute, if not yet, in the future?

What skills might you be willing to offer, or what tasks might you be willing to take on to help with our programs (refreshments, greetings, flowers, chairing), our maintenance or facility upgrades, our community outreach and publicity, our fundraising / grant writing, book binding, library work, our hallway map project, etc.?

What fundraising suggestions do you have?

Is there something more the Institute could do or offer to promote world culture?

What are your suggestions for community outreach?

What was your favorite Institute event in 2006?
