

Institute of World Culture

Film & Discussion: Macbeth

Saturday, February 20, 2010

3 – 6 pm

Concord House, 1407 Chapala St, Santa Barbara

Matinee performance: Macbeth

Saturday, February 27, 2010

2 pm

PCPC Theatrefest

800 S. College Drive Santa Maria, CA 93454 · www.pcpa.org

$13.80 · Contact Judy Saltzman of IWC for reservations

(805) 528-3008 · jsaltzma@calpoly.edu

Carpooling can be arranged

Macbeth is Shakespeare's tragic tale of a noble, heroic man unwittingly attracted by the lower elemental forces of Nature. Urged on by his wife, who has also opened herself to the lower psyche, Macbeth engages in unthinkable acts of murder and treason. He lacks the understanding that his ambition and appetite for violence is insatiable. This play raises the question whether any of us in Macbeth's place, receiving a prophecy of a great future, might not do the same.

www.worldculture.org
