

FORUM

Ladders of Enlightenment: Interpreting Sufi Stories

Saturday, October 13, 2018 from 3:00 – 5:00 pm
Concord Hall/House, 1407 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara
Presenter: Fariba Entenshari

Step by step to meet God within. ~ Rumi

Great Sufi masters like Rumi hide the gems of the search for the truth within the images of storytelling. Together, the stories build the alphabets of understanding the language of our inner life and journey of spirit on the earth. Stories are like rungs that help us to climb the ladder of enlightenment. The devotional path of Sufis is also supported by Sama (dance), Zikhar (mantra), along with music. Fariba Enteshari explores concepts and layers within the meaning of Rumi's poetry that help to reflect, examine and express the inner life with the help of the great master Sufi poet Rumi in his spiritual quest so beautifully described in his poetry.

Suggested Donation: $2 per person
For more information: <http://www.worldculture.org>, 805-966-3941